

Civic and Social Expectations

Criteria	Exemplary	Proficient	Developing	Beginning
	*student has gone above and beyond requirements	*student has met the requirements	*student has satisfied some of the requirements	*student has yet to satisfy the requirements
Show respect for all individuals and ideas within the school community (both in and out of the classroom)	Interacts respectfully, listens when others are speaking and encourages the same from others	Interacts respectfully. Listens when others are speaking.	Sometimes interacts respectfully. Sometimes listens when others are speaking.	Interacts disrespectfully. Does not listen when others speak.
Show respect for property in and out of the school building (includes field trips, away games, etc.)	Shows respect for school property and others' belongings, and encourages others to do the same.	Shows respect for school property and others' belongings.	Sometimes shows respect for school property and others' belongings.	Does not show respect for school property or others' belongings.
Demonstrate good citizenship in the school community	Demonstrates proper conduct and behavior in the school community. Takes a leadership role in school or community events that foster exemplary individual behavior.	Demonstrates proper conduct and behavior in the school community. Participates in school events that foster exemplary individual behavior.	Sometimes demonstrates proper conduct and behavior in the school community.	Does not demonstrate proper conduct and continuously demonstrates inappropriate behavior in the school community.
Demonstrate responsibility for personal decisions and actions (both in and out of the classroom)	Takes responsibility for personal decisions and actions. Demonstrates leadership qualities while encouraging similar behavior from peers.	Takes responsibility for personal behavior and actions.	Sometimes demonstrates responsibility for personal behavior and actions.	Does not demonstrate responsibility for personal decisions and actions.